

Join “Special Needs Long Island,” the radio program focused on the Special Needs Community, as we feature Joanne Fevang, Vice President and Michael Hoffman, President of the Down Syndrome Advocacy Foundation, and Esther Gómez-Nieto, President and Janet Dolan, Co-Chair of Promotion Committee of Alexander’s Angels, Inc. this Monday, March 14 at 6:30 p.m.!

Listen to us at 1240 AM WGBB or on the web at www.am1240wgb.com (click on “Listen Live”)

We are pleased to present Joanne Fevang and Michael Hoffman from the Down Syndrome Advocacy Foundation where they are dedicated to enhancing the lives of individuals with Down syndrome through advocacy and supporting inclusion within schools, communities and the workplace. They will be discussing the mission of DSAF and their services.

We are also pleased to present Esther Gómez-Nieto and Janet Dolan from Alexander’s Angels, Inc. where their goal is to engage in activities that provide a forum for public awareness of the needs and contributions of individuals with Down syndrome, through DOWNrightART and the Up of Down, and to support research, advocacy, education and service to the Down syndrome community through fundraisers.

This week’s guests will be interviewed between 6:30 and 7:00 p.m. on Long Island’s WGBB 1240 AM. For those out of the local broadcast range, or wanting the best clarity, the program is simulcast on the internet at www.am1240wgb.com.

Special Needs Long Island is a weekly radio program dedicated to the special needs community on Long Island. Featured guests are from special needs organizations, professionals practicing in the field and individuals with special needs. The program is hosted by Jeff Silverman, Director of Special Needs Planning for the Center for Wealth Preservation in Syosset, New York. He can be reached by e-mail at SpecialNeedsLI@gmail.com or at (516) 682-3363.