VIRTUALLY

Description

Self determination is the ability to make one's own choices in the journey of living a satisfying life.

Self-determination is a human right.

We welcome all stakeholders to join us for this workshop on enhancing independence by teaching self determination skills for our individuals with disabilities.

Presenter

Randy is the Founder and President of Partners in Inclusivity, Inc., a consulting company focused on supporting organizations and individuals in capacity building so that they may embrace and improve outcomes for all, especially marginalized populations. Randy is thankful that her personal and professional identities are intertwined. She has 30 years of experience in education. Randy is a mom of three children; her youngest has special education needs. Her original interest in general education then shifted to a concentration in special education. Randy now focuses on inclusive education and community building for all people.

DSAF workshops are funded through a grant from Office of Persons with Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD). In order for us to maintain this funding, and continue supporting families, we need to clearly show that we are serving families who currently have TABS numbers and have Family Support Services (FSS). Thus, if you applied for and received a TAB number through OPWDD, we will be asking you for that information when you attend our grant sponsored events. Thank you for your support!
